

Seminar Video Recording Link

The following link directs to the video recording of our Banned Books Seminar delivered in Bucharest on the 8th April 2025. All participants visible and audible in the video consented to appear in the recording for the purposes of education and project development.

The recording is not permitted for distribution without permission of the board of Banned Books MTÜ.

The recording also contains overlay text in white describing the portion of the seminar currently in progress, and text in yellow noting key moments and opportunities for future refinement as identified by our team members.
