Our Banned Books Seminar in Bucharest | was a great success we went to talk with Ibrarians, sharing our understanding of censorship, and listening to their stories so we develop skills together. This is how it should be: co-creation!
This is our new way forward: we go to LISTEN, not just to LECTURE!
What was planned to be a 2-hour seminar developed as part of Tallinn University's Erialasid Lörin'u Understanding of roled up being 4 hours because the conversation was so good something to calculate for next time!
Did I say 'next time'.?
Seriously, if you work in a library or school and want to connect with us, share your experiences, and learn about this critical subject, then message us and lets do something together •
